

Solid Waste Management Plan

Public/Technical Advisory Committee

Terms of Reference

November 17, 2021

1. PURPOSE

Over the next two to three years, Metro Vancouver will engage with governments (including Indigenous Nations), government agencies, waste and recycling industry representatives, waste producers, businesses, communities of interest, and Metro Vancouver residents to review and update the current *Integrated Solid Waste and Resource Management Plan* (2011). The updated solid waste management plan will build on the strengths of the current plan and identify opportunities for accelerated waste reduction and diversion, while reducing greenhouse gases and promoting a circular economy.

The purpose of the solid waste management plan public/technical advisory committee (committee) is to provide a forum for contribution from individuals from a range of backgrounds to inform the review and update of the solid waste management plan. The purpose of these terms of reference is to describe role of the committee.

2. TIMEFRAME

The committee will exist for the duration of the solid waste management plan update process.

3. SCOPE OF WORK

The committee will receive and review information, and advise on topics related to the development of the solid waste management plan. Committee members will be invited to pose questions, engage in discussion, and provide comments for consideration as the plan is developed. Potential topics for engagement with the committee include the circular economy, waste reduction and recycling, greenhouse gas emissions reduction, residuals management, asset and risk management, innovation, resilience, affordability, and collaboration and engagement.

Representatives of the 10 local Indigenous Nations will be invited to observe committee meetings at their preference. A separate Indigenous engagement strategy will help ensure a collaborative government-to-government engagement approach with Indigenous Nations whose territories include all or part of the Metro Vancouver region as well as a community engagement approach with urban Indigenous organizations, off-reserve and non-status First Nations, Métis and Inuit.

4. MEMBERSHIP

The committee will be composed of members representing a diversity of sectors and interests, who bring a variety of personal qualities, perspectives, and experiences to solid waste and recycling issues.

The following is a list of sectors/interests that could be represented by committee members:

- Adjacent regional district elected official
- Agriculture
- Circular economy

- Construction and demolition
- Extended producer responsibility programs

- Represents the interests/perspectives of a group of people/sector

5. SELECTION PROCESS

Membership will last the duration of the solid waste management plan update process. Committee members should be prepared to participate through the full term.

Committee members with the exception of the chair and vice-chair will be filled through a call for applications. Potential committee members who belong to typically underrepresented or equity-denied communities will be identified through targeted recruitment, with support mechanisms put in place to lower barriers to participation.

The call for applications will be promoted publically, and shared with our member jurisdictions and partners. Potential committee members will be asked to specify their sector/interest during the call for applications and an individual could identify more than one sector/interest. Not all sectors/interests will necessarily be represented on the committee, and more than one individual could be selected to represent a sector/interest. Following receipt of applications, the applicants will be evaluated based on the personal characteristics outlined in the above section on membership. Recommendations for members will be reviewed by the Independent Consultation and Engagement Panel in advance of the recommendations being considered by the Zero Waste Committee and Board in closed meetings, before being released to the public.

6. CHAIRS

The committee chair and vice-chair will be members of the Zero Waste Committee, recommended by the Board Chair and selected by the Board in a closed meeting.

7. ADVISORY ROLE OF COMMITTEE

The role of the committee is advisory to Metro Vancouver. No votes will be held to determine the group's position on issues or recommendations to Metro Vancouver. Where consensus exists, it will be noted; minority opinions will be considered to have merit and will be noted.

8. MEETINGS

- a. Meetings will be held approximately 4–6 times per year for the duration of the solid waste management plan update process.
- b. The meeting dates and times will be determined by the chair and vice-chair in consultation with committee members, and will be scheduled at intervals relevant for the solid waste management plan development.
- c. The chair and vice-chair will work with Metro Vancouver staff to draft meeting agendas and coordinate meeting materials, which will be circulated to the committee in advance of meetings.
- d. The meetings will be structured to encourage dialogue and collaboration on relevant issues within the constraints of the planned agendas.
- e. Meeting minutes and action trackers will be kept for each meeting. Minutes shall not reflect the names of individual speakers or their stance on issues; rather, they shall reflect the issues discussed, significant points of view on the issues and the resolutions or actions to be taken.
- f. Meetings will be held virtually or at Metro Vancouver offices located at 4515 Central Boulevard in Burnaby, British Columbia. If unable to attend a meeting in person, a member may participate via teleconference or videoconference.
- g. A meeting quorum will be 50%+1 of active members.
- h. Meetings will be open to any individual who wishes to observe the discussions either in person or through teleconference or videoconference, although only committee members will be provided standing to participate in the discussion. Non-members may request an opportunity to present to the committee through two weeks' advance written submission for consideration by the chair and vice-chair.
- i. Metro Vancouver staff are not members of the committee, but will attend meetings to provide information on various topics, respond to questions etc.
- j. The committee may invite groups and subject matter experts to present and provide advice and feedback on specific agenda items, at the discretion of the chair and vice-chair.
- k. All committee agendas will be published and publicly available in advance of meetings, and presentations and meetings minutes posted thereafter on Metro Vancouver's website.
- l. Metro Vancouver will coordinate the venue and meeting logistics, invitations, notetaker, refreshments, and all requests received for the committee.
- m. Committee members may be reimbursed by Metro Vancouver for reasonable, out-of-pocket expenses associated with participating in meetings.

9. WORK PLAN

An annual work plan for the committee will be developed by Metro Vancouver staff based on deliverables in the solid waste management plan development. The work plan will be reviewed annually by the committee, and will guide development of meeting agendas.

10. CODE OF CONDUCT

This code is intended to serve as a framework to guide the spirit and intent of how members are expected to deliver on the committee's purpose and objectives in an ethical and respectful manner.

- a. Respect and Collaboration: Discussions and debates shall take place in an atmosphere of mutual respect and solutions-oriented collaboration, recognizing the value of different perspectives and seeking to understand the interests and needs of all affected parties.
- b. Transparency: It is expected that all members speak honestly and transparently, engaging in good-faith dialogue and sharing information openly to encourage fact-based dialogue.
- c. Treatment of other Members: Members have a duty to treat other members with respect during committee meetings. Specifically, members have a duty to avoid:
  - disrupting meetings by making continual interruptions or whispered asides
  - making offensive or abusive remarks directed at other members
  - impugning the motives of other members or supporting staff
  - ignoring the legitimate direction of the chair or vice-chair

Members who object to the behaviour of another member as identified in this code of conduct are asked to identify their concerns immediately to the committee chair and vice-chair. A member whose behavior repeatedly does not meet the code of conduct requirements may be asked to resign or be removed from the committee by the chair or vice-chair.

11. MEMBERSHIP RESIGNATION

Members wishing to resign from committee membership should provide written notice of their intent to resign, including the effective date of their resignation, addressed to the committee chair and vice-chair.

12. BUDGET AND RESOURCES

Funding for general meetings is provided by Metro Vancouver. Any additional funding for special projects or studies is subject to Metro Vancouver approval.

13. MEDIA PROTOCOL

Media requests will be directed to Metro Vancouver's media relations team. Individual members will not speak on behalf of the committee, unless it has been discussed and approved by the committee chair and vice-chair in advance.

The committee chair and vice-chair will be the chief spokespeople on behalf of the committee. For high profile issues, the role of spokesperson rests with the Board chair, vice-chair or the chair of the Zero Waste Committee. On technical matters or in cases where an initiative is still at the staff proposal level, a senior staff member is the appropriate chief spokesperson.

14. DECLARING CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Committee and subcommittee members must declare any conflicts of interest, real or perceived, at the outset of the process or as soon as it becomes known to the member.
